The girls, who were attending the University on scholarships, are both students at Torrance High. Camilla will be a senior next year and Virginia is a junior.

Spa Houseparty

Enjoying a week in Palm Springs recently were Mmes. James E. Kimble and J. A. Eisenbrandt, of Torrance and Mmes. William Crooker and Robert Reid of Miraloste. The foursome were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Crist at the resort.

PTA The Torrance Council Way

Mrs. Ralph Gring

COUNCIL
"The Key to PTA is Membership," will be the theme for the Torrance Council PTA Membership Drive to be held the week of October 3rd to 7th, 1966.

At a recent meeting held at the home of Council membership chairman, Mrs. Paul Crossman it was decided the goal of Torrance Council Parent and Teacher Association would be 22,500 members. A daily count will be posted on a huge poster, made by Mrs. Frank Melillo, exhibit and poster chairman.

Mrs. Crossman also announced at the meeting that a Membership workshop for all unit membership chairmen would be held on September 22, 1966 from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at the First Christian Church, 2930 Eldorado Ave., Torrance.

Assisting Mrs. Crossman on the Membership committee are the following Torrance Council PTA members: Mmes. Perry Baker, president of Torrance Council; Jack Spurlock, financial secretary; J. McDonald, treasurer; H. S. Rogers, extension; Frank Melillo, exhibits and posters and Ralph Gring, publicity.

COLUMBIA
Mrs. Clayton Bowen, treasurer of Columbia Parents and Teachers, will meet with her committee next week to outline the budget proposal for next year. Members of the committee will be: Mmes. Jack Stewart, ways and means; Monroe Wiles, welfare; Kenneth Poiry, PTA president and Mr. Lester Foster, principal of Columbia school. The proposed budget will be presented to the membership at the first unit PTA meeting in September.

Columbia PTA is now making plans for the annual staff luncheon to be held September 13 at the school. This is a welcome back for teachers, drivers, and personnel. Mrs. Harry Theodos is chairman of the event, assisted by members of the Columbia PTA board.

Mrs. Clois Jobe, membership chairman has also stated her plans are in the making for the membership drive to be held October 3 to 7, 1966.

Plans for the Christmas Holiday workshop are under way led by Mrs. Walter Witte as chairman. Serving on the committee are: Mmes. Kenneth Poiry, president; Richard Livingstone, Jack Stewart, Joseph Kettering, and Charles Breaker.

PHILIP MAGRUDER
The Philip Magruder Parents and Teachers Association, is busily engaged in a citizenship program which should have all eligible persons within their school district registered in the general election, November 8, 1966. This has been a year-long project for the Magruder unit, they have been participating in this worthwhile work for the past two and one half years. A deputy registrar of voters, who resides in their area, registers eligible persons, day and night, and weekends, also attending all Philip Magruder PTA meetings throughout the year.

Missouri Guests
Miss Roberta Beezley of Springfield, Mo., who spent 10 days here with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Foster, principal of Ridgeland Rd. left by plane for San Francisco. She will spend a week there with relatives before returning to Springfield.

Dale Evans To Address Joint Meet

Dale Evans will be speaker for a joint luncheon meeting between the Palos Verdes Christian Women's Club and the Long Beach Christian Women's Club, which will be held Tuesday, Aug. 9, at 11:45 at the Ports O' Call Restaurant, in the Ports O' Call Village, San Pedro.

Miss Evans is the author of several books, among which are "Angel Unaware," "No Two Ways About It," and "Time Out, Ladies!" She has co-starred in 35 feature films with her husband, Roy Rogers, and is billed as "Queen of the Cowgirls."

She was president of the Hollywood Christian Group in 1964, and in that year received the "Churchwoman of the Year" award. Her topic will be "Time Out, Ladies!"

The special feature will be a fashion show with fashions from a shop in the Ports O' Call Village. The models will be girls from the Long Beach and Palos Verdes clubs. Music will be furnished by a special Hawaiian group.

Tickets must be purchased prior to the luncheon date. Ticket chairman is Mrs. Louise Jones. Mrs. Shirley Hamilton may also be called for reservations. There is a nursery available.

MRS. STEVEN C. TIBBS (Art's Photography)

STEIER-TIBBS
Wayfarers Chapel in Portuguese Bend was the setting for the marriage ceremony in which Miss Sandra A. Steier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Steier, 3939 W. 171st, became the wife of Steven C. Tibbs, son of Mrs. Mary Lee Wideau of Boise, Idaho.

Mr. Steier escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a beau de soie gown fashioned with bell sleeves and a scoop neckline. A Juliet lace cap held her full veil and she carried white roses.

Miss Lory Prarat was maid of honor and Misses Connie Gossett and Pat Seefeldt were bridesmaids.

Jim Tibbs stood as best man and seating the 130 guests were Wayne and Donn Steier.

Rev. Robert Young conducted the marriage ceremony.

A buffet dinner and reception followed at the Club Alondra.

The honeymoon trip was to Boise, Ida, to visit the bridegroom's mother. The couple is at home at 16625 Crenshaw Blvd., Gardena.

The bride, a graduate of North High and El Camino, is an inventory clerk with Pacific Telephone.

Her husband, educated in Idaho, served four years with the United States Navy. He is employed by Douglas, Long Beach.

Visits Enroute To Viet Nam

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kildoo Jr. had as their guest recently Pfc. Edwin N. Bacorn. Pfc. Bacorn, who had recently completed basic training at Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri, is the nephew of Mrs. Kildoo and visited with them enroute to serve with the Army in Viet Nam.

Pfc. Bacorn also visited with his grandmother, Mrs. Eva Bacorn, who is a resident of Torrance. His home is in Ava, Missouri.

What Do They Do During the Summer?

THE ART OF MODELING

Torrance youngsters learn... that's the way they spend the summer holidays. These young fry out on Florwood Ave. learn the technique of modeling from a 12-year-old instructor Lou Clarke, who attended the Sears Charm School. From left, Sylvia Lopez 5, and Cindy Tovar 6, copy the stance of a professional under the direction of Miss Clarke while her assistant, Yolanda Tovar 10, looks on. Neighbors were invited to the fashion show held in the Clarke yard and were served koolade, candy and popcorn during the intermission. (Press-Herald Photo)
